Personal.

Mr. J. Powell, of Fillmore, called on us Monday. Mr. Powell is agent for the Missouri Valley Marble Works, at Savannah, owned by J. P. Hoffman, at Savannah. We are doing what kind of business in the way of saddles, harness, bridles, hardware, whips, &c.; they having the largest stock of materials in Holt county, are prepared to fill all orders on short notice, and is expressly understood that they sell down at the best prices, and send out no work but what they warrant. When there is anything in the line of saddles, harness, or anything usually kept in a saddle and harness shop wanted by any one, we would advise them to call on this firm before purchasing elsewhere. J. S. Hart is an old hand at the business, and his work has always given satisfaction. Shop in Forest City, Mo.

Oh Yes!

We know there are a great many folks in this county, who, when they purchase anything, want the very best article, but don't want to pay much for it; they can at last be accommodated. J. S. HART & Co., are doing that kind of business in the way of saddles, harness, bridles, hardware, whips, &c.; they having the largest stock of materials in Holt county, are prepared to fill all orders on short notice, and is expressly understood that they sell down at the best prices, and send out no work but what they warrant. When there is anything in the line of saddles, harness, or anything usually kept in a saddle and harness shop wanted by any one, we would advise them to call on this firm before purchasing elsewhere. J. S. Hart is an old hand at the business, and his work has always given satisfaction. Shop in Forest City, Mo.

WIFE'S AND WEIR.

Mr. G. B. Bowman, who has been foreman in the SENTINEL Office since our initiation, left on last Wednesday for Pleasant Hill, where he purposes continuing the occupation of type. Mr. Bowman thoroughly understands the business. With his knowledge of the printing business and his industry, his work cannot be over estimated. We wish him success and a pleasant situation. "Music hath charms to soothe the savage, split a rock or bust a cabbage," said the rustic. So think we as we daily hear the soft notes of the coronet band floating out on the balmy April breeze all over our town.

In our rambles around town the other evening, we were surprised to discover another barber shop, situated on the west side of the public square. We understand it is a branch of the Forest City shop. Competition is the life of trade.

Among the new improvements in our town, we are pleased to note the new addition to the boot and shoe shop of Messrs G. & F. Seeman. They have greatly enlarged their shop, which makes it a pleasant business room.

Our Street Commissioner is doing good work on the streets.

From various farmers we learn that corn planting is going on very rapidly this week. They also inform us that there is plenty of grasshoppers now visible, and they have already commenced their work of destruction on wheat, &c.

Mr. James Vaughan is still building his house. He is just now finishing his third house on his lots, in the Western Addition. Oh, for a few more like him.

Prospects are favorable for something over an average crop of fruit in Holt county this season.

It is whispered about that a short courtship is, in a few days, to terminate in a wedding, here in town. So mount it, lo!

Brick making has commenced at J. A. Miller's yard, in the north part of Oregon.

Circuit Court.

Circuit Court convened in this place last Monday. Present, I. C. Parker, Judge; B. K. Davis, Circuit Attorney; E. L. Allen, Clerk; A. Rueker, Sheriff. Docket set for four days.

The rain in the forepart of the week made it very disagreeable, but it cleared off Wednesday and has remained pleasant during the remainder of the week. Owing to the small docket and the busy time of year among the farmers, there was not the number of people that generally attend Circuit Court, only those attending who were compelled to be present.

The following is the disposition made by the present term of the Holt Circuit Court of the fifteen criminal cases on the docket:

State vs. John L. Chuning, grand larceny, dismissed.

Same against same, breaking jail, continued.

State vs. David Neely, breaking jail, change of venue to Daviess county.

State vs. A. Burier, assault to kill, change of venue to Daviess county.

State vs. Seth Stricklin, misdemeanor, dismissed.

State vs. Nicholas Welton, (colored,) larceny returned verdict of not guilty.

State vs. King, dismissed.

There now remains on the criminal docket of the Circuit Court of Holt county only seven criminal cases, of which three is for breaking jail, one for murder and three for larceny.

Grand Concert for the Library.

Prof. James will repeat his concert for the benefit of the Library this evening at the M. E. Church. In addition to the performance given last evening there will be a series of comic recitations and songs by Mr. Geo. Richards. Mr. Richards stands without an equal in his rendition of "Cardinal Woolsey's Soliloquy," "The Gambler," and his comic song.

As the proceeds of this entertainment will be given to the Library, it is to be hoped that the citizens will give it a liberal patronage.

Admission 50 cent; children 25 cents. Tickets for sale at the postoffice.

New Book.

Mr. J. M. Hanes having secured the agency for the new work entitled "Night Scenes in the Bible," is now taking orders for the same. Every reader should have a copy of this work. It is no sensation book to be read once and thrown aside, but will be priced and held dear to every possessor. Many of the most affecting and important scenes in the Bible transpired in the night time. It is printed on a superior quality of rosinated paper, and is beautifully illustrated with numerous steel engravings, which are alone worth the price of the book.

Call on Mr. Hanes, at the SENTINEL Office, and see book.

Notice.

All persons indebted to the undersigned, are hereby notified to call and settle their accounts, as no longer time can be given.

How to Improve our Sanitary Condition.

A great cause of disease is improper food and hurried eating. In order to fully understand how to eat and how to conduct ourselves after eating, it is necessary that we should be acquainted, in some measure, with the process of nutrition. Many persons tumble their food precipitately into their mouths and swallow it without mastication, contrary to express laws of nature. Food should undergo thorough mastication and salivation before it enters the duodenum and becomes mixed with the bile and pancreatic juices. This bile is secreted by the liver. The chyme having undergone the changes adverted to, is urged, by the peristaltic motion of the intestines, onward through the alimentary canal. If the peristaltic motion be diminished, owing to the deficiency of bile, the progress of digestion is retarded and the bowels become constipated, and dyspepsia often follows. In such cases a thorough and active cathartic should be used to produce specific action, arousing the secretions and producing free bilious evacuation. The best article for this purpose is Dr. Roback's Blood Pills, the use of which should be followed by Roback's Stomach Bitters, to give tone to the stomach and aid digestion.
